

Reach your customer wherever they are

"If a church isn't using TextAlertz they are missing a tremendous opportunity for outreach and education. Our parishioners really appreciate the additional information we are able to provide them."
— Pastor Richardson,
Columbus, OH

"I was scared to try something new at first, but now I don't know what I would do without TextAlertz. I can send out mobile coupons and every time I send a blast I see an immediate spike in business. There are no more slow days, because all I have to do is send out a special offer and my customers come out when they wouldn't have thought of us otherwise."

Are you looking for a simple and affordable solution that will help you communicate with your customers, employees or contacts instantly? How would you like all the confusion taken out of mobile marketing and everything on one easy to use web-based program?

TextAlertz is one of the most effective methods to reach customers and promote products and services because it utilizes a device that everyone uses the most – the mobile phone. Around 97% of people read their text messages immediately and their mobile device is normally within arm's reach 24/7. Send time-sensitive announcements, promote coupons, events or special offers plus share links to videos or websites. Now you can use the same technology that major corporations and franchises are utilizing to communicate with their customers at a fraction of the cost.
